PERSONAL REFLECTION

What did I do really well this year that I could celebrate myself for?

Why did I succeed at those things?

What could I have done better?

What did I learn from this?

What opportunities am I glad I took?

Were there key opportunities that I missed over the last year?

How did I invest in my own development last year?

What core knowledge / skill gaps do I have right now that I might need to address moving into the future?

What is one word that reflects my year in 2020?

"Sometimes, you have to look back in order to understand the things that lie ahead." - Yvonne Woon

What ways of thinking, tasks or responsibilities held me back in 2020

What do I need to acknowledge and let go of?

What new ways of thinking or being would be more helpful for me 2021?
